thought ancient, and in times back they cannot always eaſily caught in a fib. As to the Maſons they are of antiquity; according to hiſtory, (which you will one time ſtudy) they their beginning to a ſociety of real maſons, who went from country to another, about the of our king Henry III. to aſſi erecting churches wherever they wanting. But from the time of Solomon till thoſe days, it is tain no ſuch ſociety was heard Maſter Searchwell, I commend or aſking; for there is not any thing more praiſe-worthy, nor more uſeful than to love truth, and ſeek it where-ever it is to be found. — The next picture I ſhall ſhow you is that on the right hand, of the man thrown out of the Whale's mouth, which you ſee had ſwallowed him."

"That repreſents Jonah, I ſuppoſe," ſaid Maſter Mildways, "and I think his fault was diſobedience."

Mrs. Lovewell anſwered, "It was and his preſumption beſides, in daring to diſpute with God about his judgments,
